

PROFILE

English major developing public speaking, cross-cultural communication and project coordination through competitions, campus leadership and volunteer service.

KEY NUMBERS

2 Second prizes

7 / 28 Moot court rank

50 h Volunteer service

81 h Second classroom

568 CET-4

FOCUS

Public Speaking
Cross-cultural Communication
Project Coordination
Volunteer Service

EDUCATION & POSITIONING

- B.A. candidate in English, School of Foreign Languages, Southwest Jiaotong University. Freshman focused on communication, rules and project collaboration.
- CET-4: 568. Fall GPA: 3.6/4.0. Spring GPA: 3.8/4.0.

COMPETITIONS & PROJECT PRACTICE

- Second Prize for the English speech The Window and the Stone (84.33), exploring cultural exchange through public speaking.
- Merit Award in the university-level Quest Cup Moot Court Competition; ranked 7th among 28 teams.
- Cross-border English livestream practicum for Qionglai intangible-cultural-heritage liquor; supported scripts, transitions and supplementary explanations; Team Second Prize.

CAMPUS LEADERSHIP

- Comprehensive English class representative (freshman year): course communication, assignment coordination and final-review materials.
- Organization Department member, School of Foreign Languages Student Union: supported the welcome gala, university sports meeting and multicultural campus event.
- Project Department member, University Youth Volunteers Union; incoming Curriculum Development Department head for sophomore fall.

VOLUNTEER SERVICE

- 50 recorded volunteer hours; 81 total Second Classroom hours, including 26 hours in social practice and volunteer service.
- Served twice at the National Higher Education Self-Study Examination site and twice in multilingual campus shuttle support.
- Additional service: Gongga Cup volleyball, university anniversary, children's community care, alma mater outreach and hometown promotion.

WORKING STYLE

- Structured in public speaking, live transitions and cross-cultural communication; turns tasks into reusable materials.
- Process-minded, responsible and reflective; suited to student organizations, volunteer projects and competition operations.